RESEARCH AND CLINICAL EXPERIENCE:

Social Science Research Associate/Investigator
Stanford University School of Medicine,
Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences

As a postdoctoral fellow, 2005-2006

As a research associate, 2006-2009

Research projects include treatment outcome studies of panic disorder, PTSD, GAD, and episodic anxiety of veterans. These NIH and VA funded studies use biofeedback assisted CBT, and measure physiological and psychological responses to anxiety and its treatment. Responsibilities include directing the above randomized clinical trials, providing psychotherapy and assessments for research participants, supervising researchers, psychotherapists, and research assistants, managing and analyzing the psychological/physiological data, managing IRB approval and grant budget, writing reports and papers for publication, writing grant proposals for future research projects, presenting research outcome of the above studies to academic meetings and research communities.

Postdoctoral Fellow

New Jersey Medical School (UMDNJ), Department of Psychiatry, Newark, NJ

2003–2004

As a postdoctoral fellow in the research team supported by NICHD grant, reviewed relevant literature, analyzed the data, and co-authored a paper on child abuse/neglect and generalized anxiety disorder. Received weekly individual and group supervision regarding the research activity. Provided individual psychotherapy to outpatients and received individual, group and didactic supervision from a licensed psychologist, average 4 hours per week. Attended regularly scheduled staff meetings, case conferences, didactic seminars and grand rounds offered by the department of psychiatry.

Psychology Fellow

University of California at Davis, CA

September, 2002-July, 2003

Conducted initial psychological evaluations, crisis interventions, and psychological testing. Taught a college course on peer counseling as an instructor. Provided group treatment for international students, and provided supervision for a psychology doctoral intern who ran international students groups. Led cognitive behavioral therapy groups for anxiety disorders. Conducted psycho-educational workshops or presentations for students on multiculturalism, acculturation, anxiety disorders, sexual/domestic violence, etc. Supervised a graduate level psychology trainee for a year by providing a weekly individual supervision. Received weekly individual supervision from a senior psychologist. Participated in regularly scheduled educational seminars, case conferences and staff meetings

Psychology Doctoral Intern
University of California at Davis (APA accredited)

September, 2001-August, 2002

Provided individual, group and couple's therapy to undergraduate and graduate students at the university counseling center. Conducted initial psychological evaluations, crisis intervention, and psychological testing. Co-led psychotherapy groups for survivors of sexual assault or child sexual abuse. Led cognitive behavioral therapy groups for anxiety disorders. Conducted psycho-educational workshops or presentations for students on multiculturalism, acculturation, anxiety disorders, sexual/domestic violence, etc. Supervised two graduate level psychology trainees. Supervised a group of undergraduate students designing and conducting workshops on diversity on campus. Co-instructed and co-led two discussion groups for two academic courses on multiculturalism. Received two-hour weekly individual supervision and one hour weekly group supervision. Participated in regularly scheduled educational seminars and case conferences.

Psychology Extern
University of California at Davis, CA

September, 2000-June, 2001

Provided individual psychotherapy to undergraduate and graduate students at the university counseling center. Conducted intake evaluations. Co-led two psychotherapy groups for survivors of sexual assault and child sexual abuse. Made psycho-educational presentations to students on anxiety disorders, acculturation and sexual/domestic violence. Received two hour weekly individual supervision and participated in regularly scheduled educational seminars and case presentations.

Psychology Extern
Clinical Psychology Training Program at Cambridge Hospital/ Harvard Medical School, Cambridge, MA

July 1, 1999- July 30, 2000

Provided long-term individual psychotherapy and psychological assessments to a wide variety of adults and children, including community members with minimal social and economic resources. Therapeutic issues were psychotic disorders, mood disorders, anxiety disorders, personality disorders and ADHD as well as adjustment disorders. Regularly provided acute psychological assessments to patients in the psychiatric emergency room. Provided psychological testing (Rorschach Ink Blot Test, WAIS III, TAT, etc.) and received individual supervision on the test administration, scoring, interpretation, and report writing from Kathleen Silva, Ph.D. Received individual supervision on psychotherapy from Usha Tummlala-Narra, Ph.D. Participated in weekly staff meetings and attended various weekly seminars on psychology testing and psychotherapy. Attended weekly case conferences, grand rounds, and supervision sessions. Worked in interdisciplinary medical setting interacting with psychiatrists, social workers, nurses, and administrative staff.

Psychology Extern

Center for Anxiety and Related Disorder (CARD) at Boston University, Boston, MA
